

SKILLS

- Project Management
- Organization of complex processes
- University professor
- High-level managerial training
- Corporate governance (Board Member)

Leopoldo graduated in Civil/Hydraulic Engineering in Naples in 1989. He has extensive academic experience in the field of management engineering and is an expert in project management and business process development.

He is a professor of Economics and Business Organization at the University of Rome Tor Vergata. He also teaches Project Management and Business Process Development at Lumsa University in Rome. In addition to these, Leopoldo is also a lecturer for several postgraduate programs at Luiss, the University of Rome la Sapienza, the University of Rome Tor Vergata and Lumsa University.

He consults on the development of training/managerial projects for ACEA, AdR, A2A, TERNA, EY.

He was a company executive for a decade in the FSI and IRI group.

Leopoldo has held roles in the governance of companies, including:

National Bank of Communications Foundation (Board Member)

HDI Insurance (Board Member)

DLF Association - After Railway Work (Board Member)

ACI (OIV President)

Vallelunga Racetrack (OdV)

He takes on the role of Academy Director at D&P.